PRESS RELEASE

On August 22, 2013, Police received a report of an incident in which an adult had been smoking marihuana in a residence in the presence of two juveniles in recent days.

Police investigated further, receiving statements from multiple witnesses in the case, alleging the suspect to have smoked marihuana in the living room of a Whitehall residence in the presence of at least twelve and thirteen year old children, and reports Davis had provided the marihuana to the juveniles to "smell".

On August 23, 2013, Police charged Jason E. Davis, 36, of North Street, Whitehall with counts of the following:

- Endangering the Welfare of a Child – Class A Misdemeanor

Davis was released to appear in Whitehall Village Court at a later date.

The case was handled by Whitehall Police Patrolmen Richard Rizzo and Jeffrey Grenier.
