PRESS RELEASE

On February 4, 2013, Police conducted an investigation into a reported Endangering the Welfare of a Child case.

Following a brief investigation with Washington County Child Protection Services, Police arrested William J. Hurley, Jr., 32, of South Williams Street, Whitehall, and charged him with the following:

- Endangering the Welfare of a Child – a Class A Misdemeanor

Hurley is reported to have engaged in a conversation with a minor, known to him, which included lewd and sexual comments. The victim requested an order of protection from Hurley.

Hurley was arraigned in Whitehall Court and released to appear at a later date. An order of protection was issued, barring Hurley from contact with the victim.

The case was handled by Patrolman James Huntington.
