PRESS RELEASE

On August 2, 2013, at approximately 8:55 PM, Police stopped a vehicle on Broadway for an infraction of the New York State Vehicle and Traffic Law.

Following interview of the operator, identified as Nathan M. Varney, Police determined the operator to be under the influence of alcohol, confirmed through the administration of field sobriety tests.

Police charged Nathan M. Varney, 27, of Catherine Street, Fort Ann, with the following:

- Driving While Intoxicated – BAC of 0.08% or More – 1st Offense – a Misdemeanor

Varney was determined to have a blood alcohol content of 0.13%, following the administration of the chemical test.

Varney was released to a sober third party, scheduled to appear in Whitehall Village Court at a later date.

The case was handled by Whitehall Police Patrolman Jeffrey Grenier.
