PRESS RELEASE

On August 9, 2012, Police received a report from a local vehicle dealership indicating a purchase of a vehicle had taken place in which a payment was made with a check which was found to be insufficient.

Following a lengthy investigation and extradition from Vermont, police arrested Spencer B. Durham, 38, of Broadway, Fort Edward, on January 30, 2014, and charged him with the following:

- Grand Larceny – 3rd Degree – Class D Felony

Durham issued a check for the amount of $5,468.00 in regards to the purchase of a vehicle in 2012, which was found to be insufficient. Durham fled the area to Vermont shortly thereafter the purchase of the vehicle.

Durham is being held in the Washington County Correctional Facility pending arraignment in Washington County Court.

The case/arrest was handled by Whitehall Police Sergeant Richard LaChapelle.
