PRESS RELEASE

On April 13, 2014, Police responded to the area of Maple and Smith Streets for a report of a male subject with a knife. Police interviewed two juveniles who reported they had been chased through the area by a male subject with a deer knife following a brief conversation.

The youths reported they were able to get away from the male subject without incident and make notification to their guardians, who contacted police. Neither of the youths were injured in the incident.

Following a brief investigation, Police arrested Daniel G. Mach, 18, of North Street, Whitehall, and charged him with the following:

- Menacing – 2nd Degree – Class A Misdemeanor
- Criminal Possession of a Weapon w/ Intent to Use – Class A Misdemeanor
- Endangering the Welfare of a Child – Class A Misdemeanor (2 Counts)

Mach was issued an appearance ticket to appear in Whitehall Court at a later date.

The case was handled by Patrolmen Jeffrey Grenier and David Gebo.
