PRESS RELEASE

On April 8, 2014, Police arrested a Whitehall man following observing him operating a motor vehicle after being known to have a suspended license.

Following a traffic stop and subsequent investigation, Police arrested Gary W. Schult, 60, of Poultney Street, Whitehall, and charged him with the following:
- Driving While Intoxicated (Aggravated) – 2nd Offense – Class E Felony
- Aggravated Unlicensed Operator – 1st Degree – Class E Felony

Police observed Schult operating a motor vehicle on North Williams Street and upon initiating a traffic stop, found him to be under the influence of alcohol. Field tests were conducted at the scene, prior to arrest. A chemical test was administered during the processing and his blood alcohol content was found to be a 0.25%.

Schult was found to have a prior conviction for Driving While Intoxicated.

Schult was arraigned in Whitehall Village Court and released to appear at a later date.

The case was handled by Patrolman Jeffrey Grenier, with assistance from the Washington County Sheriff's Office.
